

MISS RED WING PROGRAM

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

How do I become a Miss Red Wing candidate?

The official Miss Red Wing candidate application will be available online in March. You may also email the Miss Red Wing committee to request a paper application. The Miss Red Wing committee hosts two informational candidate meetings in early spring that can help answer your questions. Parents are also welcome to attend these meetings.

Applications and sponsor fees are due in late spring (April/May) and candidate events begin the second week in June. Miss Red Wing candidacy lasts approximately 7 weeks.

Who is eligible to run?

Any woman who has graduated from high school and either lives, works, OR attends school in Red Wing. The age range is 17-22.

Can I be a candidate a 2nd time?

Yes! Candidates who are not selected as Ambassadors are eligible to be candidates again in the future as long as the candidate still meets the age and other criteria listed above.

What if I'm not sure if I want to be selected as an Ambassador? Can I still be a candidate?

Yes! Young women are welcome to participate only for the Candidate Experience and have the right to opt out of being selected as an Ambassador if they so choose.

Must I provide my own sponsor?

Candidates are welcome to find their own sponsor. The cost of sponsorship is $350. The sponsoring business will receive publicity proceeding and during River City Days. For those who do not have a sponsor, we will assist in securing one.

What are the judges looking for?

Judging is based on overall impression including poise, communication skills, community and school involvement, sincerity and a warm, friendly personality. We are looking for a role model and strong representative for our wonderful city.

A panel of independent judges is selected to choose a team of three Ambassadors who they feel would be the right fit for the Ambassador role. Their decision is strictly of their own choosing, with no influence from the Miss Red Wing Committee or current Ambassadors. Their selection is based on information provided in the candidate applications, and as witnessed during all judged events.

Does this program have a talent or swimsuit competition?

NO! Our program does not have a talent or swimsuit competition. The Miss Red Wing program is NOT a beauty contest, it is a scholarship program.

Can a candidate be married?

This program is open to candidates who have never been married nor have had a marriage annulled, are not pregnant or have children. Upon accepting the title, if chosen, the Royalty agrees that she will not marry during her reign. These rules are in conjunction with the Minneapolis Aquatennial rules.

Can I still be a candidate if I received a ticket for under-age drinking or for some other offense?

As long as the offense occurred prior to you becoming a Miss Red Wing candidate and prior to signing our contract, you may still participate in our program. You have a 'clean slate' when you become a candidate for our program. Keep in mind though that if any infraction of the Law or rules of the Miss Red Wing program occurs after you become a candidate, there will be consequences that could include your disqualification.

Will I be disqualified if I miss a scheduled candidate event?

No. We do make exceptions for missed appearances for legitimate reasons, as long as we know in advance. But please note, if you miss an event, you may be missing a valuable opportunity to learn new skills or meet new people. It may also be one less chance for the judges to observe you.

If I am selected as one of the three Miss Red Wing Royal Ambassadors, how much time is required?

Miss Red Wing Royal Ambassadors term of service is for one year. Most of the appearances are at parades and coronations during the weekends and summer months. You will also be scheduled at numerous local community events.

Can I still be selected as an Ambassador if I am going away to college?

Yes. Most appearances are scheduled during the summer months, and we work around college schedules during the year. Because Miss Red Wing is a scholarship program, education is a top priority. The Miss Red Wing committee works with ambassadors to schedule appearances around school schedules.

What do I receive if I am selected as an Ambassador?

Serving as a Royal Ambassador is a very unique and rewarding opportunity. You will receive an educational scholarship up to $1,500 at the end of your reign. You will also receive a wardrobe, which will include one evening gown and business attire. In addition, the ambassador chosen as Miss Red Wing will have the opportunity to continue on to compete for the title of Minneapolis Aquatennial Queen of the Lakes or Princess.

How will my family be involved if I am selected as an Ambassador?

Parents play a role during the Ambassadors' year. They are involved with transportation and assisting with setting up and/or taking down of the Miss Red Wing float at parades. They may also choose to take part in chaperoning and fundraising opportunities. While parental involvement is appreciated, this is NOT part of the ambassador selection process.

What will I gain by participating in the Miss Red Wing Scholarship Program?

You will enrich your personal and professional skills including poise, presentation and speaking skills and a greater confidence in yourself. This experience is a stepping-stone to post-high school education or a future professional career. Each year, the three royal ambassadors receive an educational scholarship. In addition, you will have FUN!
